The best price was given by us in the tender, which was opened by İETT General Directorate, which included the supply of 100 articulated diesel buses and 3 years of maintenance of the vehicles.

In order to finalize the contract, within the framework of the Public Procurement Law, an invitation letter from the institution of procurement for the signing of the contract will be expected.

Important developments regarding the subject will be shared with our investors.

Regarding the submission of bid for the tender mentioned in this statement, pursuant to the authority given by our Company's Board of Directors with the decision dated 10.11.2017 and numbered 2017/18, within the scope of Article 6 of the Communiqué on Material Events the General Directorate decided to postpone the announcement of the information that it has been decided to bid for the tender until the conclusion of the tender. The decision to postpone the material event disclosure was taken in order not to adversely affect the tender process and to protect our Company's legitimate interests and competitiveness.
