MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Esteemed Shareholders, Business Partners and Employees,

We remain deeply saddened by the untimely passing of my dear brother and Koç Holding Chairman Mustafa V. Koç in the early days of 2016. He was a leader who contributed to the advancement of the Group and the nation, and a pioneer in social responsibility projects, always leading the way and inspiring us with his humanitarian values and determination. We will remember him with respect, affection and gratitude.

We will follow the vision of transforming Koç Holding into a truly global player in the international arena that Mustafa V. Koç leaves behind, and expand to new horizons with our achievements, all the while remaining true to his guidance and values. Our companies, armed with human resources, abilities and their determination to succeed, are all ready to forge ahead on this path. I am confident that Otokar will be one of the most successful companies to make us proud.

The financial results Otokar achieved in 2015 are a clear indication that the company is moving forward with strategies focused on this target. Otokar attained 16% growth in turnover, and reached TL 1.4 billion, while increasing its export figures 77% on TL basis, corresponding to 29% of total revenues. With this level of success, Otokar has maintained its position both as the largest private capital company in the Turkish defence industry and also as the leading bus brand of Turkey in 2015.

Leader of the Bus Market

As a result of our operations, which we carry out with the goal of spreading our success in the domestic bus market to international markets, we became the export leader in the Turkish small bus segment. Despite the fact that 35 or less passenger capacity medium size bus segment shrank by 46% in units exported from Turkey, Otokar maintained its position as the most preferred small bus brand in France. Our efforts to structure the sales organizations in target markets such as Italy, Germany and Spain generated positive results; we increased our bus sales in these markets significantly. The most important export delivery of 2015 was without a doubt the Vectio buses for the Malta Public Transport Authority. Thanks to high customer satisfaction, we secured an additional order for Kent buses, making it the largest contract awarded to a Turkish company for right-hand drive buses, and opening the door to different markets for Otokar.

In the cargo transportation segment, the issues on the Turkish borders affected the international logistics sector negatively; however the trailer segment attained growth with the dynamism of the construction sector in the domestic market and the implementation of and reached TL 1.4 billion.

new regulations like the ADR. These developments led us to focusing on the domestic transportation sector in these segments, and adding new authorized dealers to our sales network.

Ready to Serve

While the global defence industry downsized 1.3% in 2015, prioritization of national projects and giving first preference to local manufacturers to reduce dependency on foreign resources impacted the development of the Turkish defence industry positively. Having been awarded the Grand Award in 2015 Defence Industry by the Undersecretariat for Defence Industries, Otokar completed the delivery of all the orders to the use of Turkish Armed Forces and security forces fully and on time. Cobra II was added to the inventory of the Turkish Armed Forces. While we maintained our position as Turkey's leading land defence vehicles manufacturer, we also turned to export markets. This year we added Otokar Ural armoured vehicle to our export portfolio, and we also received new orders for various armoured vehicles to be used in the United Nations Peacekeeping Forces.

We also completed the development processes and prototype productions in accordance with the Main Contract for Phase I Turkish Main Battle Tank Design and Prototype Production signed on July 29, 2008 within the frame of the "Modern Tank Production with National Capabilities Project" (Altay Project) in 2015. While the user system qualification and acceptance tests continued, we submitted our proposal for serial production in accordance with the contract and project calendar to the Undersecretariat for Defence Industries on January 18, 2016. The Undersecretariat will now form an opinion on serial production following their evaluations. Armed with our entire human resources from our employees to our subcontractors, our experience, capabilities and our passion to offer the best for our country, we are ready to serve.

Otokar in the Turkish Patent League

As Otokar, committed to the motto of Koç Holding founder Vehbi Koç, "I exist as long as my country exists and prospers", continued to add more value to the community, the economy and the nation every day, creating employment and investing for the future, its endeavours were recognized with numerous awards in 2015. Otokar ranked fifth in the Turkish Patent Awards that recognize the companies that file the highest number of patent applications. Currently holding 246 patents and utility models, Otokar has allocated 3.8% of its revenues on average to R&D expenditures every year, and spent TL 310 million on R&D in the last decade. The share of the products with Otokar-owned intellectual property rights in our turnover has reached the levels of 95%. Since its founding in 1963 to date, Otokar's vision has been to preserve the local and national identity of its products by developing technologies in-house; and this year Otokar R&D Centre, one of the most advanced testing centres in the world, continued to offer its testing capabilities to the use of different industries. We expect this service to create new opportunities for Otokar in the future.

High Performance

One of the most important developments of last year was Otokar's inclusion in the BIST Sustainability Index. We carried out activities to utilize our resources more efficiently without compromising from our ethical codes, the importance we place on the environment, people and community, and our corporate governance principles. Our net profit reached TL 80 million while Otokar stocks returned 6.4% nominally, performing higher than the relevant indexes.

2016 Overview

With the Euro 6 emission standards coming into force for commercial vehicles and the implementation of accompanying regulations, we predict a slowdown in 2016. However, we also expect the city bus segment to enter an upward trend with the effect of deferred demand from last year. We are aiming to maintain our lead position in the Turkish bus market in 2016, while opening to new export markets and increasing our market share in cargo transportation vehicles.

We will be focusing on the production of domestic and international orders we received last year but we will also keep working rapidly on our exports. 2016 will be a year when we will realize the potential to develop different collaborations with our existing clients. If we are tasked with the production of the Altay main battle tank, Turkey's largest land defence systems project, we will be ready to fulfil all of our obligations diligently. We believe the interest that the friendly and allied countries have expressed in the Altay battle tank will have a positive impact on the exports of the Turkish defence industry as well.

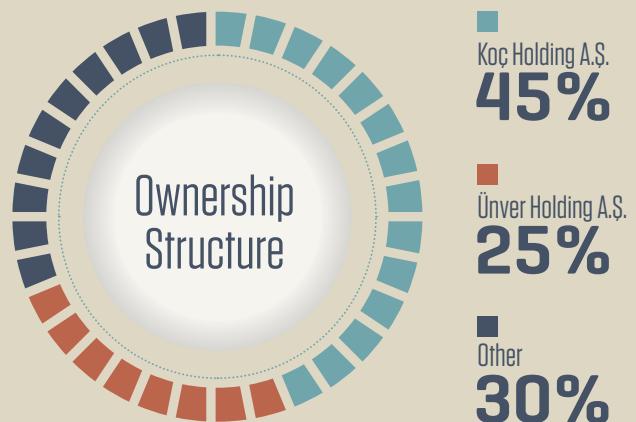

Hoping that 2016 will be a peaceful and prosperous year for our world, I would like to wish continued success to all of our shareholders, partners, customers, employees, business partners, and to our Group.

Sincerely,

Ali Y. Koç
Chairman

ABOUT

Otokar was established in 1963 at a time when industrialisation and modernisation initiatives were being launched in Turkey to manufacture the country's first intercity buses. Having started its operation with the production of buses and minibuses, the Company joined the Koç Group in 1976, and decided to specialise in other business areas in addition to mass transportation vehicles. Along with the on-going production of buses and minibuses, Otokar began manufacturing vehicles for defence industry in 1987, and produced Turkey's first tactical wheeled armoured vehicle in the 1990s.

Today, as Turkey's one of the leading manufacturer of commercial vehicles and defence industry products, Otokar produces buses, light trucks and semi-trailers in the commercial vehicles segment, and a variety of tactical wheeled and tracked armoured vehicles and turret systems for the defence industry. Otokar, as the leader and largest private capital company in the defence industry, maintains its strong position in the sector. A part of the Koç Group, the company operates at the Arifiye (Sakarya) plant with a workforce of 2,105 employees, offering its clients solutions that can be customized to their needs with its technologies, designs and applications.

Otokar has maintained its title as the best selling bus brand in Turkey for the sixth consecutive year, while continuing to expand its wide product offering with buses ranging from 7 metres to 18.75 metres for passenger transportation. 2015 saw the addition of one more title, as the Company became the export leader in the small bus segment. After launching Turkey's first hybrid bus and electric bus, Otokar is currently working on alternative-fuelled buses.

The portfolio for the cargo transportation segment includes semi-trailers for the logistics and transportation sector as well as the light trucks added to the product range in 2013. Various categories such as curtainsider semi-trailers, refrigerated trailers, container carriers, and tanker semi-trailers are manufactured in international standards. In addition to manufacturing Turkey's first ADR-certified tanker semi-trailer for hazardous material transportation, Otokar also offers safe and hygienic solutions with refrigerated trailers for perishable goods transportation. Meanwhile Atlas, a light truck with 8.5-tonne weight capacity is manufactured under license.

Otokar stands apart with its expertise in the design, development and system integration of all kinds of vehicles and platforms in the field of land vehicles for the defence industry. The company manufactures tactical wheeled and tracked armoured vehicles and turret systems with owned intellectual property rights, and exports defence industry products to over 30 countries. Otokar's wide product range is in high demand, not only in Turkey but also internationally. Otokar products are sold in 5 continents in over 60 countries including Turkey.

Otokar has made its mark with numerous firsts since its founding, and the company also stands apart with the R&D activities carried out in international standards. COMMERCIAL VEHICLES PASSENGER TRANSPORTATION

In 2015 Otokar became Turkey's most preferred bus brand in the 25+ passenger capacity segment for the sixth consecutive year, and the leader of small bus exports.

Otokar designs and manufactures a variety of buses for different needs from public transportation to personnel and tourism-focused vehicles. As the best selling bus brand with the widest product portfolio in Turkey ranging from 7 metres up to 18.75 metres in length, today Otokar vehicles carry passengers in over 40 countries.

Following the slowdown in the first half of 2015, 35+ passenger capacity bus segment grew 47% -according to Turkish Automotive Manufacturers Association (OSD) data- with the impact of the activity observed particularly after October. Meanwhile the domestic medium size bus market expanded 10%. However, despite the 23% growth recorded in bus exports, the segment of medium size buses that carry 35 passengers or less shrank by 46% in units exported.

Leading bus brand

Otokar continued to grow in the urban, personnel and tourism transportation vehicle segments in the domestic market, while maintaining its leading position as the most preferred bus brand in the 25+ passenger capacity segment for the sixth consecutive year. In 2015, 1 out of every 3 buses sold in Turkey was Otokar.

Developing vehicles to meet client expectations, Otokar became the preferred bus brand of several municipalities in the city transportation vehicles segment in 2015. The company delivered the orders of Erzurum, Gaziantep, Konya, Aydin, Kayseri and Düzce municipalities. Otokar also continued to be the choice of leading transportation companies in the tourism and personnel buses segment.

Thanks to its ability to execute modifications at short notice to conform to specific requirements, Otokar has been enjoying great success in exports, and this resulted in 561 buses sold in international markets. While buses sold in Europe, the company's main export target, and Germany, Belgium, France, Spain and Italy in particular increased in number, Otokar also maintained its position as the most preferred small bus brand in France. According to OSD's 2015 data, Otokar realized more than half of Turkey small bus exports in terms of revenues.

Otokar added the likes of Malta and Benin to its list of export markets in 2015, increasing the number of countries served to more than 45, and the vehicles exported to over 3,500.

With Mediterranean countries showing great interest, Otokar delivered 143 Doruk buses to Malta, marking the largest right-hand drive bus export from Turkey. Thanks to high customer satisfaction, Otokar received an additional order of 33 Kent buses to be used by the Malta Public Transport Authority. The Company also exported its 200th vehicle to Tunisia, a long-time user of Otokar buses. With this latest sale, Tunisia has now become Otokar's largest export market, which the brand leads with most vehicles sold, after France and Italy in Europe. Meanwhile Slovenia continued to be the Central European country where Otokar has the highest market share. The Company debuted the Kent articulated bus at the Busworld Fair in Belgium, and tripled its sales in this market compared to 2014.

Otokar participated in several fairs throughout 2015 to promote its bus range across Europe, and exhibited various vehicles in Italy, Cyprus, Belgium, Latvia, Estonia and Bulgaria.

COMMERCIAL VEHICLES CARGO TRANSPORTATION

Otokar plays the lead role in the trailer segment with the technologies it develops and the customised designs to suit different needs.

Otokar operates in the cargo transportation segment with trailers for the logistics sector as well as the light trucks added to the product range in 2013.

Trailers

Although the issues on the Turkish borders affected the international logistics sector negatively in 2015, trailer segment attained growth in Turkey with the dynamism of the construction sector in the domestic market and the implementation of new regulations like the ADR. Expanding its trailer range with products customised to suit client needs and expectations, Otokar stood apart in 2015 with its offerings for the domestic transportation sector. Pioneering the market with new technologies and conforming with international standards and regulations, Otokar continued its success in hazardous goods, perishable food and domestic transportation vehicles with ADR-certified tankers and refrigerated semi-trailers.

As a major player in the trailer segment with the technologies it develops and custom-designs to suit different needs, Otokar proved its claim in the market with the trailers delivered in 2015.

Trucks

The truck segment in which Otokar has been active for the last one and a half years was quite dynamic in 2015, and production for the domestic light weight truck segment increased 42%. The number of Atlas in use, with features including design, durability, load capacity and low maintenance costs, increased throughout the year, and in municipal services in particular. Meanwhile the Company also strengthened Atlas' dealer network to reinforce its position in the market.

FUTURE

Otokar aims at further improving its success in its existing markets and opening to new markets.

Due to the price increases that will result from the new regulations enforced in Turkey as of 2016 as well as the legislation applicable for vehicles with engines in Euro 6 emission standards, slowdown is predicted for the commercial vehicles market. However, the city bus segment is expected to enter an upward trend with the effect of deferred demand from last year. Aiming to maintain its lead position in the Turkish bus market in 2016, Otokar is also planning to build on its success in its existing markets, and Europe in particular, and to open to new markets.

Also predicting slowdown in the international logistics sector considering the developments on the country's borders but expecting dynamism in the domestic transportation sector, Otokar aims to increase its market share by introducing new products in the trailer segment for domestic requirements. With users becoming more knowledgeable about hazardous goods and perishable food transportation, and complying with regulations, the sales are expected to increase.

Otokar has been structuring its sales organization in the light truck segment, and will continue in this direction in 2016. As the brand recognition increases, Otokar also aims to take a larger market share from the light truck segment.

With national projects gaining prominence in the defence industry, Otokar will be focusing on the production of domestic and international orders received last year. Having submitted a proposal for the serial production of the Main Battle Tank Altay and its integrated logistic support systems within the frame of the current contract, which Otokar signed in 2008 as the prime contractor, the company is preparing to do its part in the best possible manner. With the first phase of the Altay Project set to be completed in 2016, the interest of the friendly and allied countries in the Altay battle tank is a clear sign that the exports of the Turkish defence industry will also increase in the long term. Otokar also works on different projects for international markets and carries out promotion activities aimed at presenting its products to the armed forces and security forces of friendly and allied countries, and plans to add new clients to its existing portfolio.

Otokar will continue to support the "Gender Equality" campaign launched in 2015 by Koç Group within the frame of "For My Country" project this year too, while carrying out further projects for the educational, cultural and health development of the community. The Company also aims to provide contribution to the development of technologies for a better life by making Otokar R&D Centre available for the use of different industries.

While compliance with the mandatory principles of the Corporate Governance Communiqué numbered II-17.1 applicable in 2015 was fully accomplished, compliance with the non-mandatory principles was achieved to a great extent. While full compliance with the non-mandatory principles is not part of the objectives, due to the challenges encountered in the implementation of some principles, on-going discussions in Turkey and internationally regarding compliance with certain principles, and the failure of the current market and corporate structure to comply with such principles in a proper fashion, full compliance has not been achieved. We are working on the principles not yet implemented and we plan to apply them once the administrative, legal and technical infrastructure for the effective governance of our company has been completed. The following sections detail, for each principle, the comprehensive efforts being made in our company within the framework of corporate governance principles, the principles with which compliance has not yet been achieved and, if any, conflicts of interest that stem from them.

Most important activities in the area of Corporate Governance in 2015 focused primarily on compliance with the Capital Markets Law that includes new regulations about CMB's corporate governance principles and the communiqués issued based on this Law. The Board of Directors and its committees have been formed in accordance with the provisions of the Corporate Governance Communiqué. The committees formed under the board of directors are functioning effectively. The remuneration policy for the board of directors and senior management was established and announced at the General Assembly. The information that must accompany the disclosure

We will continue our endeavours to ensure full compliance with the Principles in light of the developments in legislation and general practice.

The Corporate Governance Principles below among the non-mandatory principles have not been fully complied with for reasons explained. The fact that these principles are not complied with does not constitute a conflict of interest that the Company has been subjected to.

- Regarding principle 1.5.2., minority rights for shareholders holding less than one twentieth of the capital have not been defined in the articles of association, and the rights have been defined within the frame of general provisions in the legislation.
- Regarding principle 4.3.9., a target rate and timeframe for female members on the board of directors has not yet been determined, and the issue is currently being reviewed.

- Regarding principle 4.5.5., committee appointments are decided, taking into consideration Board members' expertise and experience, and in accordance with relevant regulations, some board members serve on more than one committee. However, the said members facilitate communication and increase the opportunities for cooperation between committees handling related subjects.

a) Standards, amendments and interpretations applicable as at 31 December 2015

Amendment to IAS 19 regarding defined benefit plans, effective from annual periods beginning on or after 1 July 2014. These narrow scope amendments apply to contributions from employees or third parties to defined benefit plans. The objective of the amendments is to simplify the accounting for contributions that are independent of the number of years of employee service, for example, employee contributions that are calculated according to a fixed percentage of salary.

Annual improvements 2012: effective from annual periods beginning on or after 1 July 2014. These amendments include changes from the 2010-12 cycle of the annual improvements project, that affect 7 standards:

- IFRS 2, 'Share-based payment'
- IFRS 3, 'Business Combinations'
- IFRS 8, 'Operating segments'
- IFRS 13, 'Fair value measurement'
- IAS 16, 'Property, plant and equipment' and IAS 38, 'Intangible assets'
- Consequential amendments to IFRS 9, 'Financial instruments', IAS 37, 'Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets', and
- IAS 39, 'Financial instruments – Recognition and measurement'

Annual improvements 2013: effective from annual periods beginning on or after 1 July 2014. These amendments include changes from the 2011-12-13 cycle of the annual improvements project, that affect 4 standards:

- IFRS 1, 'First time adoption'
- IFRS 3, 'Business combinations'
- IFRS 13, 'Fair value measurement' and
- IAS 40, 'Investment property'.

b) Standards, amendments and interpretations effective after 1 January 2016:

• Amendment to IFRS 11, 'Joint arrangements' on acquisition of an interest in a joint operation, effective from annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2016. This amendment adds new guidance on how to account for the acquisition of an interest in a joint operation that constitutes a business. The amendments specify the appropriate accounting treatment for such acquisitions.

• Amendments to IAS 16 'Property, plant and equipment', and IAS 41, 'Agriculture', regarding bearer plants, effective from annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2016. These amendments change the financial reporting for bearer plants, such as grape vines, rubber trees and oil palms. It has been decided that bearer plants should be accounted for in the same way as property, plant and equipment because their operation is similar to that of manufacturing. Consequently, the amendments include them within the scope of IAS 16, instead of IAS 41. The produce growing on bearer plants will remain within the scope of IAS 41.

• Amendment to IAS 16, 'Property, plant and equipment' and IAS 38, 'Intangible assets', on depreciation and amortisation, effective from annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2016. In this amendment it has clarified that the use of revenue based methods to calculate the depreciation of an asset is not appropriate because revenue generated by an activity that includes the use of an asset generally reflects factors other than the consumption of the economic benefits embodied in the asset. It is also clarified that revenue is generally presumed to be an inappropriate basis for measuring the consumption of the economic benefits embodied in an intangible asset.

• IFRS 14 'Regulatory deferral accounts', effective from annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2016. IFRS 14, 'Regulatory deferral accounts' permits first-time adopters to continue to recognise amounts related to rate regulation in accordance with their previous GAAP requirements when they adopt IFRS. However, to enhance comparability with entities that already apply IFRS and do not recognise such amounts, the standard requires that the effect of rate regulation must be presented separately from other items.

• Amendments to IAS 27, 'Separate financial statements' on the equity method, effective from annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2016. These amendments allow entities to use the equity method to account for investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates in their separate financial statements.

• Amendments to IFRS 10, 'Consolidated financial statements' and IAS 28, 'Investments in associates and joint ventures', effective from annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2016. These amendments address an inconsistency between the requirements in IFRS 10 and those in IAS 28 in dealing with the sale or contribution of assets between an investor and its associate or joint venture. The main consequence of the amendments is that a full gain or loss is recognised when a transaction involves a business (whether it is housed in a subsidiary or not). A partial gain or loss is recognised when a transaction involves assets that do not constitute a business, even if these assets are housed in a subsidiary.

Annual improvements 2014, effective from annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2016. These set of amendments impacts 4 standards:

- IFRS 5, 'Non-current assets held for sale and discontinued operations' regarding methods of disposal.
 - IFRS 7, 'Financial instruments: Disclosures', (with consequential amendments to IFRS 1) regarding servicing contracts.
 - IAS 19, 'Employee benefits' regarding discount rates.
 - IAS 34, 'Interim financial reporting' regarding disclosure of information.
- Amendment to IAS 1, 'Presentation of financial statements' on the disclosure initiative, effective from annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2016, these amendments are as part of the IASB initiative to improve presentation and disclosure in financial reports
- Amendment to IFRS 10 'Consolidated financial statements' and IAS 28, 'Investments in associates and joint ventures', effective from annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2016. These amendments clarify the application of the consolidation exception for investment entities and their subsidiaries.
- IFRS 15 'Revenue from contracts with customers', effective from annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2018. IFRS 15, 'Revenue from contracts with customers' is a converged standard from the IASB and FASB on revenue recognition. The standard will improve the financial reporting of revenue and improve comparability of the top line in financial statements globally.
- IFRS 9 'Financial instruments', effective from annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2018. This standard replaces the guidance in IAS 39. It includes requirements on the classification and measurement of financial assets and liabilities; it also includes an expected credit losses model that replaces the current incurred loss impairment model.

2.4 Significant accounting judgments and estimates

The preparation of the financial statements require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting year. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Those estimates are reviewed periodically, and as adjustments become necessary, they are reported in earnings in the periods in which they become known.

Significant estimates used in the preparation of these financial statements and the significant judgments with the most significant effect on amounts recognized in the financial statements are as follows:

- a) In the context of IAS 11 "Construction contracts" assumptions are made related to total cost of and profitability of projects.
- b) Deferred tax asset is recognised to the extent that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences can be utilized. When taxable profit is probable, deferred tax asset is recognised for all deductible temporary differences. For the year ended December 31, 2015, since the Management believed the -indicators demonstrating that the Company will have taxable profits in the foreseeable future- are reliable, deferred tax asset has been recognized.
- c) Provision for employment termination benefits are determined by using actuarial assumptions (discount rates, future salary increases and employee turnover rates).
- d) The Company determines warranty provision by considering the past warranty expenses and remaining warranty period per vehicle.
- e) Provision for doubtful receivables is an estimated amount that management believes to reflect for possible future losses on existing receivables that have collection risk due to current economic conditions. During the impairment test for the receivables, the debtors, other than related parties, are assessed with their prior year performances, their credit risk in the current market, and their individual performances after the balance sheet date up to the issuing date of the financial statements and furthermore, the renegotiation conditions with these debtors are considered.
- f) Inventory price lists after discount is used to calculate impairment for inventories. In such cases that sales price cannot be predicted, inventory aging and physical status are considered together with technical personnel's opinion. If anticipated expected net realizable value is less than the cost, impairment for the difference is provided for.
- g) When allocating provision for legal risks, the probabilities of failure in the cases and the possible liabilities to be arisen in the case of failure are evaluated by the management through being counselled by legal advisors of the Company. The management determines the amount of the provisions based on their best estimates.
- h) The Company has made certain important assumptions based on experiences of technical personnel in determining useful economic lives of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets.

2.5 Summary of significant accounting policies

Revenue recognition

Accruals basis accounting is applied for the recognition of revenue and expenses. The accrual concept requires that revenue, income and profits should be matched with costs, expenses and losses belonging to the same period.

Revenue includes invoiced or accrued values of sale of goods and rendering services. Revenue from the sale of goods is recognised on an accrual basis over fair value when the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods have passed to the buyer, usually on delivery of the goods. Revenue is recognized to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue can be measured reliably. Significant risk and rewards related to sales passes to the buyer on delivery of the goods or transfer of ownership to buyer. Net sales are invoiced amounts of delivered goods excluding sales returns.

Service revenue is recognized in the period services given. Service revenue in the context of repair maintenance agreements for more than one year are recognized in equal installments (straight line method) during the agreement periods and amounts belonging to the following periods are booked as deferred revenue.

When the arrangement effectively constitutes a financing transaction, the fair value of the consideration is determined by discounting all future receipts using an imputed rate of interest. The difference between the fair value and the nominal amount of the consideration is recognized on an accrual basis as financial income.

Interest income is recognised using the effective interest rate until maturity and considering the effective interest rate.

Construction contract activities

Contract revenue and costs are recognized as revenue and expenses, respectively, when the outcome of a construction contract can be estimated reliably. The projects are "fixed cost" and the project revenues are reflected according to the percentage of completion method. The percentage of completion method is used to recognize revenue on a contract as work progresses by matching contract revenue with contract costs incurred based on the proportion of work completed which is determined by the ratio of actual costs incurred through to the end of each reporting period divided by the total estimated contract costs of the project.

Contract costs include all direct material and labor costs and those indirect costs related to contract performance, such as indirect labor, supplies, tools, repairs and depreciation costs. Selling, general and administrative expenses are charged to the income statement as incurred. Provisions for estimated losses on uncompleted contracts are made in full, in the period in which such losses are determined.

Changes in job performance, job conditions and estimated profitability, including those arising from contract penalty provisions and final contract settlements may result in revisions to costs and income and are recognized in the period in which the revisions are determined.

Costs and estimated earnings in excess of billings on uncompleted contracts represent revenues recognized in excess of amounts billed. Billings in excess of costs and estimated earnings on uncompleted contracts represent billings in excess of revenues recognized (Note 11).

 - (vii) A person identified in (a) (i) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of the key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity).

Raw materials and merchandises - cost is determined on a weighted average basis over the costs net of imputed interest.

Finished goods and work-in progress -cost of direct materials and labour and a proportion of manufacturing overheads is included based on normal operating capacity using average cost method.

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale (Note 10).

Property, plant and equipment

All property and equipment is initially recorded at cost and then are carried at restated cost until 31 December 2004 with the index of the related purchase date. Property, plant and equipment are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment loss.

The initial cost of property and equipment comprises its purchase price, including import duties and non-refundable purchase taxes and any directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use. Expenditures incurred after property, plant and equipment have been put into operation, such as repairs and maintenance, are normally charged to income in the year the costs are incurred. In situations where it can be clearly demonstrated that the expenditures have resulted in an increase in the future economic benefits expected to be obtained from the use of an item of property and equipment beyond its originally assessed standard of performance, the expenditures are capitalized as an additional cost of property and equipment.

The useful lives and depreciation methods are reviewed periodically to ensure that the method and period of depreciation are consistent with the expected pattern of economic benefits from items of property, plant and equipment.

Depreciation is provided on cost or revalued amount of property, plant and equipment on a straight line basis. Estimated useful lives are as follows:

Land improvements	25-30 years
Building	30 years
Machinery and equipment	3-15 years
Vehicles	9 years
Furniture and fixtures	5-15 years
Leasehold improvements	5 years

Land is not amortized since it has an unlimited economic life.

Gains and losses on sale of property, plant and equipment are included in investment activity income and expense.

Intangible assets

Intangible assets mainly comprise software rights, information systems, project costs related to new product development and computer software. Intangible assets are initially stated at cost and are restated until 31 December 2004 with the index of the related purchase date. Intangible assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment loss.

Intangible assets are amortized on a straight-line basis over the estimate of their useful lives, which is up to 5 years. Intangible assets are recognized if it is probable that the future economic benefits that are attributable to the asset will flow to the enterprise; and the cost of the asset can be measured reliably. Where the carrying amount of an intangible asset is greater than its estimated recoverable amount, it is written down immediately to its recoverable amount.

Research and development expenses

Research expenditures are recognized as an expense when they are incurred.

Intangible assets arising from in-house development activities (or the improvement phase of an intergroup project) are recognized when all of the following conditions are met:

- existence of the technical feasibility of completing the intangible asset so that it will be available for use or sale,
- existence of the intention to complete the intangible asset and use or sell it,
- existence of the ability to use or sell the intangible asset,
- reliability of how the intangible asset will generate probable future economic benefits,
- the availability of adequate technical, financial and other resources to complete the development and to use or sell the intangible asset.
- existence of the ability to measure reliably the expenditure attributable to the intangible asset during its development.

Other development expenditures are recognized as an expense as incurred. Development costs previously recognized as an expense are not capitalized as an asset in a subsequent period. Capitalized development expenses are amortized in expected useful life which is 5 years by straight-line method effective from the start of the production.

Investment, research and development incentives

Government grants are recognized where there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and all attaching conditions will be complied with. When the grant relates to an expense item, it is recognized as income over the period necessary to match the grant on a systemic basis to the costs that it is intended to compensate. Where the grant relates to an asset, it is recorded as deferred income.

Investment and research and development incentives are recognized when the Company's incentive requests (applications) are approved by fiscal authorities.

Income taxes

Income tax is the aggregate amount included in the determination of net profit or loss for the year in respect of current and deferred tax.

The current income tax charge is calculated in accordance with the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date in Turkey. Under the Turkish Tax Code, companies having head office or place of business in Turkey are subject to corporate tax. A provisional tax accrual is recognized in the financial statements for current taxation. Current tax charge is calculated over operational results considering the effects of disallowable and exemptions.

Furthermore, provisional corporate taxes are paid at 20% over profits declared for interim periods in order to be deducted from the final corporate tax.

Under the Turkish taxation system, tax losses can be carried forward to be offset against future taxable income for five years. Tax losses cannot retrospectively offset against the profits of previous years.

Deferred income tax is provided, using the liability method, on all temporary differences at the balance sheet date between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realized or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date.

Deferred income tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences and unused tax losses, to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences can be utilized. The carrying amount of deferred income tax assets is reviewed by the Company at each balance sheet date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred income tax asset to be utilized.

Deferred tax assets are presented net of deferred tax liabilities in the balance sheet.

Employee benefits

Defined benefit plans:

Employment termination benefits

In accordance with existing social legislation in Turkey, the Company is required to make lump-sum termination indemnities to each employee who has completed over one year of service with the Company and whose employment is terminated due to retirement or for reasons other than resignation or misconduct.

In the financial statements, the Company has recognized a liability using the "Projected Method" based upon factors derived using the Company's experience of personnel terminating and being eligible to receive benefits, discounted by using the current market yield at the balance sheet date on government bonds. All actuarial gains and losses are recognized in the statement of other comprehensive income.

Foreign currency transactions

Transactions in foreign currencies during the year have been translated at the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of such transactions. Monetary balance sheet items denominated in foreign currencies have been translated at the Central Bank of Turkey (TCB) exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date.

Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and, where appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. Provisions are revised at each balance sheet date and amended in order to reflect management's recent estimations.

Contingent liabilities and assets

Assets and liabilities that originate from past incidents and whose presence is not fully under the entity's control as it can only be confirmed through the realization of one or more indefinite incidents to take place in the future are not included in the financial statements and are considered as contingent liabilities and assets.

Contingent liabilities are not recognized in the financial statements. They are disclosed only, if the probability of outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is not highly probable. A contingent asset is not recognized in the financial statements but disclosed when an inflow of economic benefits is mostly probable.

Share capital and dividend

Ordinary shares are classified under share capital. Dividend distribution on ordinary shares is recognized as an appropriation of profit in the period in which they are declared.

Operating leases

Leases where a significant portion of the risks and rewards of ownership are retained by the lessor are classified as operating leases. Payments made under operating leases are charged to the income statement on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease.

Warranty expenses

Warranty expenses are recorded as a result of repair and maintenance expenses for products produced and sold, authorized services' labour and material costs for products under the scope of the warranty terms without any charge to the customers, initial maintenance costs and estimated costs based on statistical information for possible future warranty services and returns of products with respect to the products sold during the year.

Financial instruments

Financial assets

The Company's financial assets comprise cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables, receivables from related parties, financial investments and other receivables. Financial liabilities comprise financial loans, trade payables, due to related parties and other payables.

Financial assets with fixed or determinable payments and fixed maturities are classified as held to maturity when the Company has the positive intention and ability to hold to maturity. Financial assets which are ready for sale when considered the liquidity needs or the possible changes in interest rates, are classified as held for trading. Others except these are classified as ready for sale financial assets.

Available for sale investments

Investments intended to be held for an indefinite period of time and which may be sold in response to needs for liquidity or changes in interest rates are classified as available-for-sale. These are included in non-current assets unless management has the expressed intention of holding the investments for less than 12 months from the balance sheet date or unless they will need to be sold to raise operating capital, in which case they are included in current assets. Management reviews the classification of these financial assets on a regular basis.

The fair value of financial assets must be carried at cost less impairment, when the fair value of financial assets cannot be measured reliably.

Available for sale assets are carried at fair value after initial recognition. The fair value of available for sale financial assets is determined by the market price at the balance sheet date when available. If no market price is available, fair value is estimated based on valuation process by using discounted cash flow, similar purchases and observable market parameters.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and at banks and short-term highly liquid and the risk of value change is not material investments including time deposits generally having original maturities of three months or less.

Bank accounts consist of time and demand deposit accounts and the related interest accrued. The Turkish Lira balances are stated at face values and the foreign currency balances are translated into Turkish Lira at the foreign currency rate issued by the Central Bank as at the report date. Time deposit accounts are stated as calculated by adding accrued interest as of balance sheet date on the principle amount.

Trade receivables

Trade receivables and notes and post-dated checks classified within trade receivables which are recognized at original invoice amount are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method. Short term trade receivables without specified interest rate, are measured at invoice amount when the interest accrual effect is immaterial.

A credit risk provision for trade receivables is established if there is objective evidence that the Company will not be able to collect all amounts due. The allowance is an estimated amount which is difference between existing receivable and collectible amount. Collectible amount is the discounted value of trade receivables, all cash flows including collections from guarantees by using original effective interest rate.

Post dated cheques received with maturity dates exceeding the balance sheet date are classified in trade receivables and are rediscounted using the interest rates determined for government debt securities by considering the interest levels arising in the stock exchanges or other organized markets.

A credit risk provision for trade receivables is established if there is objective evidence that the Company will not be able to collect all such receivables. The allowance for doubtful receivables is established through a provision charged to expenses. Provision is made when there is objective evidence that the Company will not be able to collect the debts. The allowance is an estimated amount that management believes to be adequate to absorb possible future losses on existing receivables that may become uncollectible due to current economic conditions and inherent risks in the receivables. Bad debts are written off when identified. Provision for doubtful receivables is recognized as an expense when identified.

If a portion or the entire amount of a receivable is collected after provided for a provision, the collected amount is deducted from total provision and is recognized as an income in the comprehensive income statement.

Trade payables

Trade payables are recognized initially at fair value of and subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method.

Borrowings

Short and long term bank loans are stated at the value computed through addition of the principal amount and the interest expenses accrued as of the balance sheet date.

Borrowings are recognized initially at proceeds received, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently stated at amortized cost using the effective yield method; any difference between the proceeds and redemption value is recognized in the comprehensive income statement over the period of the borrowings. Borrowing costs arising from bank loans are charged to the comprehensive income statement when they are incurred unless they are incurred for acquisition of a qualifying asset.

Derivative financial instruments

Derivative financial instruments are initially recognised in the balance sheet at cost and subsequently are re-measured at their fair value. The derivative instruments of the Company mainly consist of foreign exchange forward contracts and related transactions. These derivative transactions, even though providing effective economic hedges under the Company risk management position, do not generally qualify for hedge accounting, therefore treated as 'derivative financial instruments held for trading. Any gains or losses arising from changes in the fair value of such kind of financial instruments are recognized under statement of profit and loss.

Impairments in financial assets

Financial asset are assessed at each balance sheet date whether there is any objective evidence that a financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired. A financial asset or a group of financial assets is deemed to be impaired if, and only if, there is objective evidence of impairment as a result of one or more events that had occurred after the initial recognition of the asset and that loss event has an impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset or the group of financial assets that can be reliably estimated. For loans and receivables impairment loss has been incurred the amount of the loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows

Except for trade receivables, which is reduced through the use of an allowance account, impairment on all other financial assets are directly written off in the related account. In case trade receivables cannot be collected, the related amount is written off from allowance account. The change in allowance account is accounted in the comprehensive income statement.

An impairment loss recognized in prior periods for an asset is reversed if the subsequent increase in the asset's recoverable amount is caused by a specific event since the last impairment loss was recognized. Such a reversal amount cannot be higher than the previously recognized impairment and is recognized as income in the financial statements.

Recognition and derecognition of financial assets and liabilities

The Company recognizes a financial asset or financial liability in its balance sheet when only when it becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. The Company derecognizes a financial asset or a portion of it only when the control on rights under the contract is discharged. The Company derecognizes a financial liability when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires.

All regular way financial asset purchase and sales are recognized at the date of the transaction, the date the Company committed to purchase or sell. The mentioned purchases or sales are ones which require the delivery of the financial assets within the time interval identified with the established practices and regulations in the market.

Foreign currency transactions

Monetary balance sheet items denominated in foreign currencies have been translated to Turkish Lira at the Central Bank of Turkey exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date. Exchange gains or losses arising on translation of foreign currency denominated assets and liabilities are included in the comprehensive income statement.

Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing the net profit by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the year.

The companies can increase their share capital by making a pro-rata distribution of shares ("Bonus Shares") to existing shareholders without consideration for amounts resolved to be transferred to share capital from retained earnings and share capital inflation adjustments. For the purpose of the earnings per share calculation such Bonus Share issues are regarded as stock dividends. Accordingly, the weighted average number of shares used in earnings per share calculation is derived by giving retroactive effect to the issue of such shares.

Subsequent events

Subsequent events comprise all events occurred between the date of authorization of the financial statements for issuance and the balance sheet date.

The Company updates its financial statements and respective disclosures that relate to conditions that existed at the end of the reporting period to regarding any new information that they receive after the reporting period which require amendment. Non-adjusting events are solely disclosed if they are of such importance.

Impairment of non-financial assets

At each reporting date, the Company assesses whether there is any indication that carrying value of assets except financial assets and deferred tax assets is impaired or not. When an indicator of impairment exists, the Company estimates the recoverable values of such assets. When individual recoverable value of assets cannot be measured, recoverable value of cash generating unit of that asset is measured.

Where the carrying amount of an asset is greater than its estimated recoverable amount, it is written down immediately to its recoverable amount. Recoverable amount is the higher of net selling price or value in use. Net selling price is determined by deducting any expenses to be incurred for the sale of an asset from the fair value of the asset. Value in use is calculated as the discounted value of the estimated future cash flows the entity expects to receive from the asset.

When recoverable amount of an asset (or a cash generating unit) is lower than its carrying value, the asset's carrying value is reduced to its recoverable amount. An impairment loss is recognized immediately in the comprehensive income statement.

An impairment loss recognized in prior periods for an asset is reversed if the subsequent increase in the asset's recoverable amount is caused by a specific event since the last impairment loss was recognized. Such a reversal amount cannot be higher than the previously recognized impairment and is recognized as income in the financial statements.

Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs comprise interest expense, foreign exchange losses arising from financing activities and other costs related with financing.

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition of qualifying assets are capitalised as part of the cost of the respective assets. Capitalization is ceased when the -operations to bring the qualifying asset ready for sale or use- are completed. Qualifying assets are those assets whose construction or production takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale.

All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period they occur. The Company did not capitalize any borrowing cost in the current year.

Offsetting

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the balance sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to set off the recognized amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realize the asset and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

NOTE 16 - EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

	31 December 2015	31 December 2014
Provision for employment termination benefits	22.321.490	20.969.191
Provision for unused vacation	6.651.542	5.381.838
Total	28.973.032	26.351.029

Employment termination benefits

There are no agreements for pension commitments other than the legal requirements as explained below.

Under the Turkish Labour Law, the Company is required to pay termination benefits to each employee who has completed one year of service and whose employment is terminated without due cause, or who is called up for military service, dies or retires after completing 25 years of service (20 years for women) and achieves the retirement age.

The amount payable consists of one month's salary limited to a maximum of TL 3.828 for each year of service as of December 31, 2015 (December 31, 2014 - TL 3.438).

The liability is not funded, as there is no funding requirement.

The provision has been calculated by estimating the present value of the future probable obligation of the Company arising from the retirement of the employees.

Turkish Accounting Standards promulgated by POA require actuarial valuation methods to be developed to estimate the enterprises' obligation under defined benefit plans. Accordingly, the following actuarial assumptions were used in the calculation of the total liability:

	31 December 2015	31 December 2014
Net discount rate (%)	4,60	3,50
Turnover rate to estimate the probability of retirement (%)	97,60	97,41

The principal assumption is that the maximum liability for each year of service will increase in line with inflation. Thus the discount rate applied represents the expected real rate after adjusting for the anticipated effects of future inflation.

The movements of provision for employment termination benefits are as follows:

	2015	2014
1 January	20.969.191	16.173.142

If all significant inputs required to fair value an instrument are observable, the instrument is included in level 2. Disclosure of fair value measurements by level of the following fair value measurement hierarchy:

- Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1),
- Inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (that is, as prices) or indirectly (that is, derived from prices) (Level 2),
- Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (that is, unobservable inputs) (Level 3).

The following table presents the Company's assets that are measured at fair value at December 31, 2015 and 2014:

Fair value is the amount at which a financial instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, other than in a forced sale or liquidation, and is best evidenced by a quoted market price, if one exists.

The estimated fair values of financial instruments have been determined by the Company using available market information and appropriate valuation methodologies. However, judgment is necessarily required to interpret market data to estimate the fair value. Accordingly, the estimates presented herein are not necessarily indicative of the amounts the Company could realize in a current market exchange.

Monetary assets - Short term monetary assets are considered to approximate their respective carrying values due to their short-term nature and low level of credit risk.

Monetary liabilities - Trade payables and other monetary liabilities are considered to approximate their respective carrying values due to their short-term nature.
