Explanations

Otokar has signed an export contract amounting to approximately USD 110 million to sell of 4x4 and 8x8 Tactical Wheeled Armored Vehicles including their spare parts and training services. The contract will be effective following the completion of the letter of guarantee transactions, receipt of the advance payment and obtaining the necessary permissions for export.

Deliveries of the vehicles are planned to be started in 2021 and completed until the end of 2022.
